GOOD FRIDAY

Friday, April 2, 2021 – 10:00am

---

*But He was wounded for our transgressions; He was crushed for
our iniquities;
upon Him was the
chastisement that
brought us peace,
and with His
stripes we are
healed.*

Isaiah 53:5

As We Gather: Good Friday is a time of somber reflection as we approach the mystery of the cross. But the austerity of the Good Friday liturgy should not obscure the fact that this is a death we celebrate because of the life and forgiveness that flow from the cross for us and for our salvation. Because Good Friday is not an isolated event or day but part of God's planned revelation of His love, we listen to the entire story of God's work of salvation and deliverance. The message of the cross is the message of the Scriptures, planned by God, proclaimed by the prophets, and fulfilled in Christ. This liturgy continues what was begun on Holy Thursday and will not be complete until Easter Sunday adds its own message of hope and triumph.
