

Third Sunday After Pentecost

June 26, 2022

Order of Service: Divine Service One: LSB page 151

AS WE GATHER

When you feel all alone, remember this: you are not alone. First, you are not alone in feeling that way. In today's Old Testament Reading, you will see how even Elijah, the mighty prophet of God, felt all alone. "I, even I only, am left!" he exclaimed (1 Kings 19:10). That was his honest feeling; however, it wasn't true. The Lord revealed to Elijah that He had not abandoned His prophet, even reassuring Elijah of this by providing Elisha as his helper in proclaiming the Word of the Lord. God's presence and provision in Elijah's life reassured him of his divine purpose, and the same is true for you! Even when you may think or feel that you are alone, you are not! God's presence and provision, which you will receive yet again today, reassure you of this! Jesus is with you! He loves you! And He sends His Spirit into your life to give you His purpose and direction, reminding you that you belong to Him!

Salutation and Collect of the Day

The Old Testament Reading – 1 Kings 19:9b-21

Gradual

How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news

Who publish peace and bring good news of salvation

Their voice has gone out to all the earth,

And their words to the ends of the world.

The Epistle Reading – Galatians 5:1, 13-25

Alleluia and Verse

Offertory "What Shall I Render to the Lord"

Lord's Prayer

Collect for the Word

P Blessed Lord, since you have caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning, grant that we may so hear them, read, mark, learn and take them to heart that by patience and comfort of your holy Word we may embrace and every hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

G Amen.

Benediction

Closing Hymn – LSB #921 "On What Has Now Been Sown"

There [Elijah] came to a cave and lodged in it. And behold, the word of the LORD came to him. 1 Kings 19:9a
