

Third Sunday of Easter St. Philip and St. James

May 1, 2022

Order of Service: Divine Service IV - LSB: Page 203

As We Gather

In light of Christ's eternal victory, we should expect change in our daily living. For example, although they were called to be fishers of men, in today's Gospel, the disciples learned that they needed to listen to their Lord even when fishing for fish. Change for Peter would mean moving from regretting his past (where he denied his Lord) to feeding Christ's flock. And for Saul (Paul), Christ's eternal, living presence would mean changing from catching Christians to proclaiming Christ before Gentiles and kings. The heavenly host in the Reading from Revelation sing their eternal songs of praise to the Lamb on the throne. How might our risen Lord's eternal victory over sin and evil change us so that we echo their praises already here in time?

CLOSING HYMN - #484 "Make Songs of Joy"

Jesus said to them,
"Children, do you have any fish?" They answered Him, "No."
He said to them,
"Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in,
because of the quantity of fish. John
