AS WE GATHER

Son of a pub owner and a cabinet maker by trade, Edward Mote was century Englishman who came to faith in Christ as an adult and then two decades of his life as a parish pastor. Although Mote is said to his touch for building furniture, he discovered a new passion in his writing hymns for Christians to sing. “My hope is built on nothing less blood and righteousness,” he wrote. “No merit of my own I claim But Jesus’ name. On Christ, the solid rock, I stand; All other ground is (LSB 575/576:1). The story is told that the first person with whom these words was a friend who had fallen ill and was nearing the end Mote’s beautiful hymn, which Christ-followers like us continue to reminded God’s beloved that Christ Jesus alone is the solid mighty fortress in whom she could trust. In life and in death, our hope rock, who offers for us nothing less than His own blood and righteousness.

Listen to Me, you
who pursue
righteousness, you
who seek the LORD:
look to the rock
from which you
were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug.
