

Seventh Sunday after the Epiphany

February 20, 2022

AS WE GATHER

The season of Epiphany is one of the “accordion” seasons of the Church Year. The later Easter falls in March or April, the more Sundays after the Epiphany there are. This year’s “Epiphany accordion” is stretched long enough to include eight Sundays. In an extended Epiphany season, the light of Christ burns brightest, as Jesus is revealed in action and in teaching through the Gospel writers. There is power when and where Jesus is among His people, as the hymn “Jesus Comes Today with Healing” teaches (LSB 620). May we welcome His presence among us!

But love your enemies, and do
good, and lend,
expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for He is kind
to the ungrateful
and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. Luke
